Program Note

As is the case with most of my compositions, I wrote Pacem - A Hymn for Peace for a friend who also happens to be a musician. The work was composed for Patrick Brooks and his Wind Ensemble at Idaho State University. The themes and structure of the piece are based on the 2nd movement of my Consort for Ten Winds, which impressed Pat at a chamber recording session I led in 1999. I intended Consort to be a contemporary reflection of older music, and for the 2nd movement to reflect the beautiful, imitative motet style of the Renaissance composers I admire, such as Josquin Des Prez and Palestrina. While many of the stylistic and inherently lyrical elements of Consort are retained in Pacem (the title is Latin for “peace”), the large-scale instrumental forces of the symphonic wind ensemble presented opportunities to expand the musical proportions of Pacem. Rather than simply an “arrangement” of the earlier chamber work, Pacem became an original piece unto itself. The musical proportions in Pacem range from the introspective to the epic, reflecting the scope of humanity’s persistent, hopeful and often difficult struggle toward the realization of personal and universal peace.

The original Consort for Ten Winds is published by Boosey & Hawkes in the Windependence Chamber Ensemble series.

Biography

Composer Robert Spittal’s music reflects the range of his pursuits as a composer, conductor and teacher. Spittal (b. 1963, Cleveland, OH) has composed works for brass choir, wind ensemble, and chamber music for woodwind quintet, brass quintet, guitar ensemble, as well as for recordings of jazz and works for dance and musical theatre. His wind compositions have been performed by professional, collegiate and high school ensembles throughout the United States, and at conferences such as the College Band Directors National Association, the Iowa Bandmasters Association and the California Band Directors Association.

Spittal maintains an active schedule as a conductor, university professor and clinician. He is the conductor of the brass ensemble Clarion which has presented over forty premieres of works for brass choir and percussion and two critically-acclaimed CDs since 1995. Spittal conducts the Wind Symphony and Chamber Wind Ensemble at Gonzaga University, where he has served as chair of the Music Department since 2000. Dr. Spittal resides in Spokane, Washington with his wife and daughter.
