Director of Music Report
June 2023 committee meeting

This is traditionally our quiet time of year as the colder climate moves in and outdoor events become sparser. It is also a time when quite a few members take a holiday and head for the sun! yet we are still averaging over 30 players to each rehearsal which bodes well for our progress as a band.

Whilst I am not surprised but a little disappointed over the lack of response to our call for subcommittee members, those that have put their names forward need to now be engaged in the role for which they have volunteered. As a management committee, we need to make contact with these new members and engage them in positive efforts for the band, also as a management committee we need to take a step back at times, so we are not the ones carrying out all the work but engage others to have input and effort in the continued growth of our organisation

The sub committee volunteers are:

Fundraising: Kerry Fielding, Tony Flatnan
Events: Rachael Nealis, Aaron Wotton, Kerry Fielding
Uniform: Geoff Freestone
Cos: Scott Grey
Social: Cheryl Zeimeiki, Kerry Fielding
Publicity: Adriana Trecapelli, Daniel Triffet

We will be competing in the 2023 state contest in August and to that end we will be putting effort into the test piece and Hymn, but I am happy to report that Harold has agreed to work on our own choice, Dvorak 9, not only is this good for Harold its good for our Band.

Members may remember that I have put suggestions forward to the NSW state Government and the Camden Council to allow the use of the vacant court house as a rehearsal centre for us, this suffered a serious setback with the change of government and a lot of incorrect information being produced during an election campaign, however I have once again raised the issue with our new representative and her office and have a meeting scheduled later in the month to pursue further permanent rehearsal space for the band.
